Location:

Hess Gehris Solutions, 95 North State Street, Suite 3, Concord, NH 03301

Who Should Attend?

Anyone Interested in:

1. Developing the knowledge and skills required to be an effective mediator;
2. Understanding conflict resolution theory;
3. Gaining essential practical experience through exercises, personalized coaching, feedback and discussion;
4. Enhancing communication and interpersonal skills; and/or
5. Earning professional continuing education credits.

Why Attend?

Participants will learn about the mediation process, augment their present practice and enhance their mediation skills. If you are an attorney, manager, human resource professional, educator, or individual who wants to incorporate mediation into your professional and/or personal life, this training is for you. Whether you are a beginner, or an experienced mediator and conflict resolution professional, or somewhere in between, our small class size (12) provides opportunities for each individual to learn and grow.

Cost: Early Registration before August 25, 2017 - $1,500

Registration after August 25, 2017 - $1,750

The Trainers:

Melinda Gehris will lead the training. Melinda has trained and coached hundreds of lawyers, human resource professionals, and personnel managers in how to deal with conflict productively. Melinda will be joined by Lauren Girard Adams and Mary Sargent. To learn more about the trainers and the training you can visit hessgehris.com and marysargentmediation.com.
